Contributions of original nature dealing with pre-historic and field-archaeology, epigraph, manuscripts, numismatics, archives, art and architecture of Nepal and museum and other techniques connected with various aspects of art work are invited to the 'Ancient Nepal' - the journal of the Department of Archaeology.

The contributions should be concise and well-documented, and based on hitherto unpublished data. It will, however, be welcome if, on any already published principle, any new interpretation or evidence is put forward.

The opinions expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial board or the Department of Archaeology.

Photographs and illustrations (line drawings) may be sent. The typescript should be in double space and on one side of the paper only and sent to:
