

CNAS Alumni of Foreign Scholars

Established in 1972, the Centre for Nepal and Asian Studies (CNAS) at Tribhuvan University is an academic venue for foreign undergraduate, graduate, Ph.D. students and post-doctoral scholars working on Nepalese topics. In addition to its other five areas of research – Culture and Heritage Studies, Social Change and Development Studies, Himalayan Studies, Nepalese Political Studies, and South and East Asian Studies, the Centre has been offering affiliations to foreign students/scholars through the Centre for International Relations (CIR) at Tribhuvan University for fieldwork studies in Nepal.

To date, CNAS has over five hundred affiliates. The Centre is planning to establish an alumni organization, and this note is an effort to make contact and to ask for updated addresses in order to inform them about the Alumni Association and seek their input.
